Free Diabetes Education Program at Memorial

SPRINGFIELD – A free diabetes education program will be offered from 6-8 p.m. Tuesday, April 13, at Memorial Medical Center.

“Taking Control of Diabetes” will be held in the hospital’s Wedeberg Conference Center located on the lower level near the main entrance. To register, people can call (217) 788-3333.

Kathy Levin, a registered dietitian and a certified diabetic educator with Memorial Medical Center, will speak on “Debunking Diabetes Myths” at 6 p.m.

Dr. Kevin Hazard, an endocrinologist with Springfield Clinic and a member of the American Association of Clinical Endocrinologists, will discuss “Diabetes Update” at 7 p.m.

Both presentations will include brief question-and-answer sessions with the audience.

Friends of Memorial and Memorial Medical Center are co-sponsors of the program.

Memorial Medical Center, 701 N. First St., is a nonprofit, community-based hospital in the Mid-Illinois Medical District at Springfield. For more information about the hospital, visit ChooseMemorial.org.
